When switching back from italic or slanted shapes to an upright font one should add the italic correction, except when a small punctuation character follows; e.g., a comma or a period.